5. Late Registration

Students who are unable to report for registration on the specified date are required to submit an application for late registration to the Graduate School. Except for medical reasons and other extraordinary circumstances, registration can only be delayed for at most 5 calendar days after commencement of classes (The first day of 1st semester's classes of the academic year 2023/2024 is 17 August 2023). Students should submit the completed application form to the Graduate School at least three working days before the scheduled registration period. Otherwise, a late registration fee of MOP330 will be charged against students who fail to register by the date specified. Application form (GRS/Form/011) for late registration can be obtained at the Graduate School or website (<https://grs.um.edu.mo/index.php/current-students/application-forms/>).

6. UM Medical Insurance

UM medical insurance is mandatory for all registered students, except those are approved for exemption. The insurance scheme period starts from the registration day to 31 July 2024 and covers out-patient visits and hospitalization benefits. For further latest information about the UM Medical Insurance Scheme, Waiver Guidelines and Exemption Application, please visit the below website <https://srs.sao.um.edu.mo/medical-insurance/>.

NOTES

1. New students must complete the registration in person.
2. Non-registered new students can apply for deferment of studies for not more than one academic year. Such applications will only be permitted for medical reasons and exceptional cases with sound justification. For medical reasons, students are required to submit medical certificates issued by hospitals at the time of application. For exceptional cases with sound justification, students are required to specify the reason and submit written certifications at the time of application. Application for such deferment should be made to Graduate School before 3 July 2023 (Application should be submitted to the Graduate School's office or by email).
3. Non-registered new students must fulfill all the conditions stated in their offer letters and submit the required amount of Non-refundable Deposit before they become eligible to apply for deferment of studies.
4. Non-registered new students are not permitted to transfer to another major/programme when they apply for resumption of studies. The University reserves the right to change the study plan and cancel any programme without prior notice.
